

Melville Douglas STANLIB High Alpha Fund

Fund information update at 31 March 2023

What is the fund's objective?

The High Alpha Fund is a high-conviction, actively managed, South African listed securities fund. The primary objective of this fund is to generate capital growth over the long term, with income generation as a secondary objective. Performance is further enhanced by exploiting short-term market pricing anomalies.

What does the fund invest in?

The fund is a pure equity portfolio, with the objective of delivering returns in excess of the FTSE/JSE Capped SWIX All Share over time.

What possible risks are associated with this fund?

General market risks include a rise or volatility in bond yields, rising interest rates, economic and political risk, inflation uncertainty and duration risk. Where foreign securities are included in the portfolio there may be additional risks, such as potential constraints on liquidity and the repatriation of funds, macro-economic risks, political risks, tax risks, settlement risks, and potential limitations on the availability of market information.

| Performance fee | N/A |
| Adviser fee | 1.150% |

Annual fee (manager) – this is a service charge (% based) applicable to each class of a fund, that is levied on the value of your portfolio and includes the Annual fee (adviser) fee (where applicable). Annual fees are calculated and accrued daily and recovered monthly from the income awaiting distribution in the fund.

Adviser fee - this is the maximum annual service fee (% based) an adviser can charge on the value of your portfolio. It is calculated and accrued daily and recovered monthly by means of a redemption of your units. It is not included in the Annual fee.

Cost ratios (annual) including VAT as at 31 December 2022

| | Class B1 |
|--------------------------------|------------|
| Based on period from: | 01/01/2020 |
| Total Expense | 1.18% |
| Transaction Costs | 0.17% |
| Total Investment Charge | 1.35% |
| 1 Year Total Expense | 1.19% |

Total Expense (TER): This ratio shows the charges, levies and fees relating to the management of the portfolio and is expressed as a percentage of the average net asset value of the portfolio, calculated over the period shown and annualised to the most recently completed quarter. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER should not be regarded as an indication of future TERs.

Transaction Costs (TC): This ratio shows the percentage of the value of the fund incurred as costs relating to the buying and selling of the fund's underlying assets. TC are a necessary cost in administering the fund and impacts fund returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, the type of fund, investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER.

Total Investment Charges (TIC): This ratio is simply the sum of the TER and TC, showing the percentage of the value of the fund incurred as costs relating to the investment of the fund. It should be noted that performance figures account for all costs included in the TIC ratio, so you should not deduct the TIC from performance figures, the performance is already net of the TIC.

Fund review

The High Alpha Fund delivered a return of 3.8% for the 1Q23 ahead of the FTSE/JSE Capped SWIX which returned 2.44% and the Peer Group return of 2.53%. The domestic equity portion of the portfolio returned 2.2% for the quarter, underperforming both the FTSE/JSE Capped SWIX and Peer Group which returned 2.44% and 2.40% respectively. The Offshore equity component of the portfolio returned 11.53% in Rand terms for the quarter against the MSCI ACWI which returned 11.9%. The best performing sector was Consumer Discretionary (+21.1%) followed by Health Care (+17.7%) and Technology (16.9%). The Fund's best performing stocks were AngloGold, Richemont, Bidcorp, Bidvest and Prosus.

Market overview

Financial markets started 2023 on an upbeat tone on the back of some positive developments, but lost momentum as the quarter progressed. China's reopening, lower energy prices in Europe after an unusually warm winter and evidence that inflation has turned the corner all contributed to a belief that a soft landing in the global economy was achievable. Given the volatility in the Banking sector, the Fed considered a pause in rate hikes but unanimously approved a decision to raise rates by 25bps, a consequence of a robust labour market, low unemployment, and a strong consumer (excess savings), demonstrated in the data on inflation.

We believe the path for interest rates will primarily be determined by the outlook for inflation, and with core inflation looking set to remain stubbornly high in the short term, central banks are unlikely to be in a hurry to ease tight monetary conditions by lowering interest rates early.

Looking ahead

Although favourable developments in Europe and China are welcome and should be viewed as very supportive to the economic 'soft landing' rhetoric, we still feel that it is too early to call such an outcome. The lagging effect of higher interest rates has yet to play out, whilst better than expected demand from Europe and China will likely lead to inflation being elevated for longer, thereby requiring central banks to keep interest rates higher for a lengthier period than currently predicted.

Inflation in South Africa continues to hover at levels above its upper target band of 6%. We are of the belief that the interest rate tightening cycle is very near its peak if it hasn't peaked already with the recent 50 bps tightening. A further 25bps interest rate hike is expected in May, thereafter, we anticipate rates will be held level throughout the remainder of the year. The South African GDP is expected to grow by c.0.5% during 2023 in an environment marred by unrelenting loadshedding, unprecedented levels of unemployment, and infrastructure under significant strain but alongside the Global economy we do expect a recovery in 2024.

With diversification and risk management at our core, we focus on stock selection and long-term value creation, and we believe the Fund is well positioned to benefit from undemanding valuations within the South African equity market. We are mindful of the risks inherent in investing in SA and have taken steps to manage the risk by continuously performing sensitivity analysis to our model portfolio as well as stress testing our assumptions to ensure we capture opportunities that will benefit our clients over the long term and manage risks.

All performance returns and ranking figures quoted are shown in ZAR and are based on data sourced from Morningstar or Statpro and are as at 31 March 2023.

Annualised return figures are the compound annualised growth rate (CAGR) calculated from the cumulative return for the period being measured. These annualised returns provide an indication of the annual return achieved over the period had an investment been held for the entire period. Actual annual figures are available on request from the Manager.

Portfolio performance figures are calculated for the relevant class of the portfolio, for a lump sum investment, on a NAV-NAV basis, with income reinvested on the ex-dividend date. Individual investor performance may differ due to initial fees, actual investment date, date of reinvestment of income and dividend withholding tax. Portfolio performance accounts for all costs that contribute to the calculation of the cost ratios quoted, all returns quoted are after these costs have been accounted for.

Statistics - Positive Months: the number of individual 1 month periods during the specified time period where the return was not negative; Max Gain: the maximum gain in a trough-to-peak incline before a new trough is attained, quoted as the percentage between the trough and the peak. It is an indicator of upside risk over a specified time period (quoted for all periods of 1 year or longer); Max Drawdown: the maximum loss in a peak-to-trough decline before a new peak is attained, quoted as the percentage between the peak and the trough. It is an indicator of downside risk over a specified time period (quoted for periods of 1 year or longer, where no value is shown no loss was experienced); Highest and Lowest: the highest and the lowest 1 year return (%) that occurred during the specified time period (quoted for all relevant classes launched 1 year or more prior to current month end date).
